BRIEFING OF ATTG DEPENDENTS

This regulation establishes procedures to be followed in the systematic briefing of ATTG dependent wives.

1. Policy. Project Headquarters require that the wives of all personnel assigned to ATTG receive a security briefing as soon as possible after arrival. A member of the security staff will personally brief dependent wives and will insure that a briefing statement is signed and witnessed.

2. Responsibility. The Chief of the Security Staff will maintain adequate records relating to dependent briefings.

3. Procedures.

a. Dependent wives will be briefed in accordance with the Dependent Briefing Guide. The true sponsor of the project will be included in this briefing.

b. A memorandum of understanding certificate will be signed by the dependent receiving the security briefing, witnessed by the briefing officer and retained on file in the security office.
